Mayor Holds John Dogan for Action of Grand Jury.

> egislature to Be Asked for Authority to Issue Bonds for Road Improvement.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King St., (Bell Telephone No. 106), ALEXANDRIA, Va., November 23, 1899. The case of John Dogan, colored, charged with breaking and entering the store of Mr. Norton Entwisle, on South Columbus street, and stealing therefrom, was called before Mayor Simpsen in the police court this morning. Mayor Simpson, after reviewing the case, decided that it should be referred to the grand jury, and the prisoner was held under bond of $500. Dogan, as before stated, at the time of the alleged burglary, was at liberty on bail of $200, under an indict-ment of robbing a man of $19.

Other cases disposed of in the police court this morning were as follows: Walter Deavers, charged with cruelty to a horse, was dismissed. George Carter, colored, charged with assaulting Annie Fortune, also colored, was fined $10. A fine of $5 was also imposed on George for assaulting Henry Clark

Meeting of Supervisors. A lengthy meeting of the board of supervisors for Alexandria county was held yesterday afternoon in the office of Attor-ey C. C. Carlin in this city. The principal matter discussed was the proposition to bond Alexandria county for $130,000 in the interest of better public thoroughfares.

Several prominent citizens of the county were present, and after an extended discussion Mr. Carlin, as acting commonwealth's attorney, was directed to prepare and deliver to the representatives of the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the county in the state legislature bills to authorize the state legislature bills to county in the state legislature bills to authorize the supervisors to require all railway companies, operated either by electricity or steam, running into or through the county to erect and maintain vertical arm gates at such crossings as the supervisors may designate; to authorize the supervisors to institute sults in equity for delinquent county road and school taxes; to require all railroad companies using electricity as a motive power to stop any and require all railroad companies using elec-tricity as a motive power to stop any and all trains at any and all of its stations for the purpose of taking on or putting off pas-sengers, and, finally, to authorize the su-pervisors to borrow money by the issuance of bonds for the purpose of improving the public roads of the county.

Local Team Wins.

About 300 people gathered at Colross grounds yesterday afternoon and witnessed a hotly contested game of foot ball between the Alexandrians and an eleven from Fort Hunt, composed of members of Battery A, 4th United States Artillery, in which the local players were victorious by a score of 6 to 0. Although outweighed by many points, the locals had possession of the ball during most of the play.

General and Personal.

The marriage of Dr. Julian T. Miller and Miss Edith Pauline English, daughter of Mrs. Julia A. English, of Maryland, took place last evening at 7:30 o'clock in Christ Church, as announced in vesterday's Star Rev. Berryman Green performed the ceremony, after which a reception was ten-dered Dr. and Mrs. Miller at the residence of Mr. Ashby Miller, brother of the groom, on South Washington street. Later the bride and groom left for a northern trip.

Mrs. Rebecca Marshall, wife of Thomas Marshall, died last night at her home, No. 628 North Patrick street. Deceased was nighteen years of age.

Isaac Lloyd, a well-known and esteemed effizen, died last night at his residence, No. 401 South Lee street, aged seventy-two years. He was born in New Jersey, but spent many years of his life here. Mr. Lloyd was at one time a prominent chin:

merchant.

The reserve eleven of the Episcopal High School defeated the Marsden School foot ball team of Baltimore yesterday afternoon by a score of 17 to 0. A telegram was received here last night that Landon Cole, a former resident of this city, had been run over and killed by a locomotive in Arkansas. The remains will be brought here for interment.

HEAVY BOND REQUIRED.

Frank T. Wansmaker Held for Action of Grand Jury.

Frank T. Wanamaker was today arraigned before Judge Scott on the charge of stealing two pawn tickets, the property of Hattie Lewis, on which he realized $90 He was also charged with obtaining that sum from C. L. Baker by means of false pretenses. Wanamaker was held in $2,000 for the action of the grand jury.

Miss Lewis informed the court that she became acquainted with Wanamaker at a house of questionable repute near the corper of 13th and D streets northwest about a week ago. The accused man, she said, represented himself to her as a wealthy man; also that he was a nephew of John Wanamaker, and wanted to take care of her. She ac-companied him to two hotels, where Wanamaker and the witness lived as Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rice. The defendant, soon after Mrs. W. C. Rice. The defendant, soon after the two became acquainted, got her to pawn a diamond ring for $30 and give him the money. Previous to this the witness had, she said, pawned another diamond ring for $25. Wanamaker, she said, got her to give both pawn tickets to him, under pretense that he would redeem the tickets, but instead of doing so he sold the tickets to Mr. C. L. Baker for $90 and retained the money. She acknowledged, however, that money. She acknowledged, however, that the defendant gave her $20 with which to pay a bill. She claimed that when Wanamaker gave her the money he told her it was the proceeds of a check he had cashed.

Mr. C. L. Baker told how he came to advance the $30 on the pawn tickets, stating that he was deceived into the transaction by Wanamaker's misrayersesenties. by Wanamaker's misrepresentations.

The arrest was made by Detectives Horne and Weedon. Mr. Howell Titus was counsel for the defense.

BOWLING IN NEW YORK. The Sport is Rapidly Becoming a Social Fad.

From the New York Herald. Bowling is a growing social fad in New York, indulged in by an army of about 22,-000 members of about 260 c'ubs, who play regularly each week, to say nothing of the individuals and impromptu parties who daily engage in the sport. It is indeed a keen interest in the game that now pervades the community, and one amounting almost to a craze, which appears to be quite evident along and near upper Broadway, from 53th street, all through the hundreds.

advantage there is nothing that gives her the middle ages, and having been intro advantage there is nothing that gives her greater pleasure than to make the most of it and watch him suffer. Those girls had me at their mercy. They overwhelmed me with cold, critical, analytical glances that were more deadly than Mauser bullets. By the time I reached the guests table, where I sat in solemn grandeur with the girl at whose invitation I was there, I would have gladly exchanged places with a man leading a forlorn hope on the field of battle. Before the dinner was half over I would have considered being lost in a tropical found in the middle ages, and having been introduced to Manhattan Island in the first days of the Hollanders when they played the forerunner of the game in Bowling Green; but the social features, the participation of peninstrated by women in the sport, and the society accompanies. The staid old men, who talk about "nine puns" and "ten pins" are still at it, and the younger people of the second and third generations are ple of the second and third generations are found in the first days. ple of the second and third generations are found in the alleys nightly, and are giving the game a social position it has never had

It is the club that is doing the work, and its name is legion. A bowling alley as a household feature is difficult to attain, particularly in a dense city, where a large repulation lives in flats; so the bowling alleys built for hire are in demand, and they are best secured by club organizations, of the attending expenses, hence the numer-cus clubs with memberships from a dozen to three score. These clubs hire the alleys for one or more nights a week during the season, which begins when outdoor sports season, which begins when outdoor sports cease and continues until they begin again. The club that has hired an alley owns it for the eight it plays, and has undisputed centrol of it. It is only for club members and invited guests, and there they are at home. They play their game, have all the social visiting they want, rest from the bowling, take a hand at cards or pariners for a dance, and have a general good time through a long evening. Refreshments are provided, usually as a part of the renting continact, and are frequently served in the attract, and are frequently served in the alleys.
